Building through prayer

This week's prayer :

God of holiness, your glory is proclaimed in every age: as we rejoice in the faith of your saints, inspire us to follow their example with boldness and joy; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Song 1

I cast my mind to Calvary

Where Jesus bled and died for me
I see His wounds His hands His feet
My Saviour on that cursed tree

His body bound and drenched in tears
They laid Him down in Joseph's tomb
The entrance sealed by heavy stone
Messiah still and all alone

*O praise the Name of the Lord our God
O praise His Name forevermore
For endless days we will sing Your praise
Oh Lord oh Lord our God*

Then on the third at break of dawn
The Son of heaven rose again
O trampled death where is your sting
The angels roar for Christ the King

He shall return in robes of white
The blazing sun shall pierce the night
And I will rise among the saints
My gaze transfixed on Jesus' face

Benjamin Hastings, Dean Ussher, Marty Sampson

Song 2

Stir a passion in my heart God

Let it overflow let it overflow
Breathe on me Holy One
Come reveal Your wonder now
Open wide my eyes to see
There's so much more
Jesus You are where it all begins
Your beauty calls me deeper in

Let it rise let it rise,
Holy fire burn inside
Let it rise let it rise,
all for Jesus

Thought for the day: Lis Ward

At the moment we are all very aware of what it is to be contagious and of how fast infection can spread. We are hoping in these days of R rates and self isolation that there is no rapid spreading of the covid virus. Unlike us, Paul hopes for a high infection rate. He asks for prayer that the message of the Lord will spread rapidly and be honoured as it has been by the Thessalonians Christians. His work building the early churches is founded on prayer. We can be inclined to keep the good news of what Jesus has done to ourselves rather than sharing it with others. We sanitise the message of the cross and self isolate in our Christian bubble. If we want to grow the church and build the body of believers we should start with prayer that we will be contagious Christians and that others will catch what we have been freely given. We may not all be missionary evangelists like Paul but we can all pray that the message of the Lord will spread rapidly and the name of Jesus be honoured in our world today.

Song 3

Make me a channel of your peace.

Where there is hatred let me bring your love;
Where there is injury your pardon, Lord;
And where there's doubt true faith in you.

*Oh, Master grant that I may never seek
So much to be consoled as to console;
To be understood as to understand;
To be loved as to love with all my soul.*

Make me a channel of your peace.
Where there's despair in life let me
bring hope;
Where there is darkness, only light;
And where there's sadness, ever joy.

Make me a channel of your peace.
It is in pardoning that we are pardoned;
In giving to all men that we receive;
And in dying that we're born to eternal life.

Reading of the week: 2 Thessalonians 3:1-5

As for other matters, brothers and sisters, pray for us that the message of the Lord may spread rapidly and be honoured, just as it was with you. ²And pray that we may be delivered from wicked and evil people, for not everyone has faith. ³But the Lord is faithful, and he will strengthen you and protect you from the evil one. ⁴We have confidence in the Lord that you are doing and will continue to do the things we command. ⁵May the Lord direct your hearts into God's love and Christ's perseverance.
