Opening Prayer: Loving Lord, You have indeed done great things for us and we are filled with joy. As we enter a time of new freedoms, keep us mindful of our frailty, keep us dependent on you and help us to remain conscientious of our responsibilities to others as we pray to you in faith, sing your praise with gratitude and listen to your word with eagerness; through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Song 1
If faith can move the mountains

Let the mountains move
We come with expectation
Waiting here for You
Waiting here for You
You're the Lord of all creation
And still You know my heart
The Author of salvation
You've loved us from the start
*Waiting here for You with our hands
Lifted high in praise
And it's You we adore
Singing alleluia*

You are everything You've promised
Your faithfulness is true
We're desperate for Your presence
All we need is You

Reading: Luke 9:10-17

¹⁰When the apostles returned, they reported to Jesus what they had done. Then he took them with him and they withdrew by themselves to a town called Bethsaida, ¹¹but the crowds learned about it and followed him. He welcomed them and spoke to them about the kingdom of God, and healed those who needed healing. ¹²Late in the afternoon the Twelve came to him and said, "Send the crowd away so they can go to the surrounding villages and countryside and find food and lodging, because we are in a remote place here." ¹³He replied, "You give them something to eat." They answered, "We have only five loaves of bread and two fish—unless we go and buy food for all this crowd." ¹⁴(About five thousand men were there.) But he said to his disciples, "Have them sit down in groups of about fifty each." ¹⁵The disciples did so, and everyone sat down. ¹⁶Taking the five loaves and the two fish and looking up to heaven, he gave thanks and broke them. Then he gave them to the disciples to distribute to the people. ¹⁷They all ate and were satisfied, and the disciples picked up twelve basketfuls of broken pieces that were left over.

Song 2
All to Jesus I surrender,

all to him I freely give;
I will ever love and trust him,
In His presence daily live.
*I surrender all, I surrender all,
all to thee, my blessed Saviour,
I surrender all.*

All to Jesus I surrender,
humbly at His feet I bow;
worldly pleasures all forsaken,
take me, Jesus, take me now.

All to Jesus I surrender,
make me, Saviour, wholly Thine;
let me feel the Holy Spirit,
truly know that Thou art mine.

All to Jesus I surrender,
Lord, I give myself to thee;
Fill me with thy love and power,
Let thy blessing fall on me.

All to Jesus I surrender,
Now to feel the sacred flame;
O, the joy of full salvation!
Glory, glory to His name!

Thought for the day: Jon Speirs -Davies We've reached the end of our series in the Gospel of Luke about People Jesus Met. So far we've met: fishermen turned disciples, a man with diseased skin, a paralysed man, a tax collector turned disciple, a Roman centurion, a son raised to life, Mary and Martha, a demon possessed man, a sick woman and a daughter raised to life. Now Jesus meets 5,000 people. After the hugely diverse individuals who Jesus gladly welcomed no matter who they were, is it any surprise that we now find him graciously teaching and feeding a faceless multitude? Today the multitude of people who have met Jesus is roughly 2,382,000,000 (almost a third of our world's population). They hail from every walk of life you could possibly imagine. Jesus opened his arms to anyone and everyone during his earthly ministry. 2,000 years later he's still doing it!

Song 3
You call me out upon the waters

The great unknown where feet may fail
And there I find You in the mystery
In oceans deep my faith will stand

*And I will call upon Your name
And keep my eyes above the waves
When oceans rise
My soul will rest in Your embrace
For I am Yours and You are mine*

Your grace abounds in deepest waters
Your sov'reign hand will be my guide
Where feet may fail and fear surrounds me
You've never failed and You won't start now

Spirit lead me where my trust is without borders
Let me walk upon the waters
Wherever You would call me
Take me deeper than my feet could ever wander

And my faith will be made stronger
In the presence of my Saviour
I will call upon Your name
Keep my eyes above the waves
My soul will rest in Your embrace
I am Yours and You are mine

We seek your kingdom throughout every sphere

We long for heaven's demonstration here
Jesus your light shine bright for all to see

Transform, revive, and heal society

Before all things, in him were all things made
Inspiring culture, media, and trade
May all our work serve your economy
Transform, revive, and heal society

Peace, truth, and justice reigning everywhere

With us be present in our public square

Fill all who lead with your integrity
Transform, revive, and heal society

Forgive us Lord, when we have not engaged

Failing to scribe your heart on history's page

Make us again what we were made to be

Transform, revive, and heal society

Faithful to govern ever may we be
Selfless in service, loving constantly
In everything may your authority
Transform, revive, and heal society
