Trinity Sunday 6th June 2021

Our Services Today

10:30 am	Worship and Grow Together		Live in Church & available via our youtube channel
6:30 pm	Service not Communion		Live in Church Only

Our Church Building continues to be open for public worship. There are some restrictions still in place such as no gathering before or after services and also no singing is allowed in the Church building. We would love to see you in person if you feel able to come, we will continue to livestream both our morning services. As usual they will be available to catch up over the week too!

People Jesus met: A Faithful Centurion

Opening Prayer:

Dear God, thank you for being true. We want to know you better so we can love as much as you love and be wise like you. Send your Holy Spirit today so that, as we worship, we may find true life in Jesus Christ your Son. Amen

Song 1

Praise is rising, eyes are turning to You,

we turn to You
Hope is stirring, hearts are yearning for You,
we long for You
'Cause when we see You,
we find strength to face the day.
In Your presence all our fears
are washed away, washed away.

Hosanna, hosanna

You are the God who saves us,

worthy of all our praises

Hosanna, hosanna

Come have Your way among us.

We welcome You here, Lord Jesus.

Hear the sound of hearts returning to you

we turn to You.

In Your kingdom broken lives are made new,

You make us new,

'Cause when we see You,

we find strength to face the day,

In Your presence all our fears

are washed away, washed away.

Song 2

Who's the King of the jungle (ooo, ooo)

Who's the King of the sea
(bubble, bubble, bubble)

Who's the King of the universe

And who's the King of me

Well, I say J-E-S-U-S is

He's the King of me

He's the King of the universe

The jungle and the sea

(bubble, bubble, bubble)

Reading: Luke7: 1-10 When Jesus had finished saying all this to the people who were listening, he entered Capernaum. ²There a centurion's servant, whom his master valued highly, was sick and about to die. ³The centurion heard of Jesus and sent some elders of the Jews to him, asking him to come and heal his servant. ⁴When they came to Jesus, they pleaded earnestly with him, "This man deserves to have you do this, ⁵because he loves our nation and has built our synagogue." ⁶So Jesus went with them. He was not far from the house when the centurion sent friends to say to him: "Lord, don't trouble yourself, for I do not deserve to have you come under my roof. ⁷That is why I did not even consider myself worthy to come to you. But say the word, and my servant will be healed

. ⁸For I myself am a man under authority, with soldiers under me. I tell this one, 'Go,' and he goes; and that one, 'Come,' and he comes. I say to my servant, 'Do this,' and he does it." ⁹When Jesus heard this, he was amazed at him, and turning to the crowd following him, he said, "I tell you, I have not found such great faith even in Israel." ¹⁰Then the men who had been sent returned to the house and found the servant well.

Thought for the day: David Acheson

The Faithful Centurion

In this story we are learning about a servant who is sick. Here are some questions you need to find answers to in this story.

Why is his master sad?

How can he be saved from his illness?

Why is the servant regarded as special?

Who is the saviour in this story?

What is Jesus surprised about?

From my point of view, it would be helpful if centurion began with an S!

Song 3

Bless the Lord, O my soul,

O my soul, worship His holy name.

Sing like never before,

O my soul, I'll worship Your holy name.

The sun comes up, it's a new day
dawning;

It's time to sing Your song again.

Whatever may pass, and whatever lies
before me,

let me be singing when the evening comes.

You're rich in love and You're slow to anger

Your name is great, and Your heart is kind.

For all Your goodness, I will keep on singing:

Ten thousand reasons for my heart to find.

And on that day when my strength is failing,
the end draws near, and my time
has come;
Still my soul will sing Your praise
unending:
Ten thousand years, and then forevermore!
