Building Church in Changing Times: Building through difficult issues

This week's prayer : Almighty Father, whose will is to restore all things in your beloved Son, the King of all: govern the hearts and minds of those in authority and bring the families of the nations, divided and torn apart by the ravages of sin, to be subject to his just and gentle rule; who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

Song 1

My hope is built on nothing less than Jesus' blood and righteousness
I dare not trust the sweetest frame but wholly trust in Jesus' name

*Christ alone, Cornerstone weak made strong, in the Saviour's love
Through the storm
He is Lord, Lord of All*

When darkness seems to hide His face
I rest on His unchanging grace
In every high and stormy gale
My anchor holds within the veil
My anchor holds within the veil

Then He shall come with trumpets sound
Oh, may I then in Him be found Dressed in His righteousness alone faultless, stand before the throne.

Reading of the week: 1 Thessalonians 4:1-18

As for other matters, brothers and sisters, we instructed you how to live in order to please God, as in fact you are living. Now we ask you and urge you in the Lord Jesus to do this more and more. ²For you know what instructions we gave you by the authority of the Lord Jesus. ³It is God's will that you should be sanctified: that you should avoid sexual immorality; ⁴that each of you should learn to control your own body in a way that is holy and honourable, ⁵not in passionate lust like the pagans, who do not know God; ⁶and that in this matter no one should wrong or take advantage of a brother or sister. The Lord will punish all those who commit such sins, as we told you and warned you before. ⁷For God did not call us to be impure, but to live a holy life. ⁸Therefore, anyone who rejects this instruction does not reject a human being but God, the very

Song 2

God is our strength and refuge
Our present help in trouble
And we therefore will not fear
Though the earth should change
Though mountains shake and tremble
Though swirling floods are raging
God the Lord of hosts is with us
evermore

There is a flowing river
Within God's holy city
God is in the midst of her
She shall not be moved God's help is swiftly given
Thrones vanish at His presence
God the Lord of hosts is with us
evermore

Come see the works of our Maker
Learn of His deeds all-powerful Wars will cease across the world
When He shatters the spear
Be still and know your Creator
Uplift Him in the nations
God the Lord of hosts is with us
evermore

God who gives you his Holy Spirit. ⁹Now about your love for one another we do not need to write to you, for you yourselves have been taught by God to love each other. ¹⁰And in fact, you do love all of God's family throughout Macedonia. Yet we urge you, brothers and sisters, to do so more and more, ¹¹and to make it your ambition to lead a quiet life: You should mind your own business and work with your hands, just as we told you, ¹²so that your daily life may win the respect of outsiders and so that you will not be dependent on anybody. ¹³Brothers and sisters, we do not want you to be uninformed about those who sleep in death, so that you do not grieve like the rest of mankind, who have no hope. ¹⁴For we believe that Jesus died and rose again, and so we believe that God will bring with Jesus those who have fallen asleep in him. ¹⁵According to the Lord's word, we tell you that we who are still alive, who are left until the coming of the Lord, will certainly not precede those who have fallen asleep. ¹⁶For the Lord himself will come down from heaven, with a loud command, with the voice of the archangel and with the trumpet call of God, and the dead in Christ will rise first. ¹⁷After that, we who are still alive and are left will be caught up together with them in the clouds to meet the Lord in the air. And so we will be with the Lord forever. ¹⁸Therefore encourage one another with these words.

Thought for the day: Ian Ward

How should we live to please God? That is the question that Paul has been asked by the church in Thessalonica. He dealt with the subject when he was with them for a short time and he now writes to remind them and us that it matters how we live our lives. The startling fact is that each one of us is called to be holy, sanctified, as another translation puts it. Something that is sanctified is something that wasn't holy but has been set aside to be holy. None of us, left to our own desires, are holy. Each of us either in our hidden thoughts or our actions tend to impurity. But, set aside, taking specific steps, living prayerfully and quietly in love and peace with all, even those we disagree with, we will learn the secret of a holy and peaceful life.

Song 3

Jesus Christ, I think upon Your sacrifice, you became nothing, poured out to death.
Many times I've wondered at Your gift of life, and I'm in that place once again,

And once again I look upon the cross where You died,
I'm humbled by Your mercy and I'm broken inside.
Once again I thank You, once again I pour out my life.

Now You are exalted to the highest place,
King of the heavens, where one day I'll bow.
But for now, I marvel at this saving grace,
I'm full of praise once again,

Thank You for the cross, Thank You for the cross,
Thank You for the cross, my Friend.
