The letter of James: Listening and Doing

Prayer for today:

Lord of creation, your glory is around and within us: open our eyes to your wonders, that we may serve you with reverence and know your peace through our lives, both now and in eternity, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen

Reading: James 1:19-27

¹⁹My dear brothers and sisters, take note of this: Everyone should be quick to listen, slow to speak and slow to become angry, ²⁰because human anger does not produce the righteousness that God desires. ²¹Therefore, get rid of all moral filth and the evil that is so prevalent and humbly accept the word planted in you, which can save you.²²Do not merely listen to the word, and so deceive yourselves. Do what it says. ²³Anyone who listens to the word but does not do what it says is like someone who looks at his face in a mirror ²⁴and, after looking at himself, goes away and immediately forgets what he looks like. ²⁵But whoever looks intently into the perfect law that gives freedom, and continues in it—not forgetting what they have heard, but doing it—they will be blessed in what they do.²⁶Those who consider themselves religious and yet do not keep a tight rein on their tongues deceive themselves, and their religion is worthless. ²⁷Religion that God our Father accepts as pure and faultless is this: to look after orphans and widows in their distress and to keep oneself from being polluted by the world.

Thought for the day: Jon Speirs -Davies

If you wanted to earn yourself some Trinity Points, then you could do worse than predicting why this week's reading is significant. First, you'd need to know that there's a verse of scripture displayed at the back of the church. Second, that the verse is James 1:22. Third, that it's in the reading. Well done if you got all that: 10 points to Gryffleclaw! Given this, I have to wonder if maybe, just maybe, this passage might have been preached on before at Trinity. What could I possibly add..? Well, I feel some comfort in the thought that, each time I personally dig into this passage, it floors me. It's like that cryptic phrase: we don't just read Scripture, Scripture also reads us. When I read James especially this passage it reads me pretty hard. And I'm always grateful. I hope you find the same!
