1 John2: 7-11 Light and Dark

www.holytrinityboston.org.uk

Reading: 1 John 2 : 7-11

⁷⁻⁸ My dear friends, I'm not writing anything new here. This is the oldest commandment in the book, and you've known it from day one. It's always been implicit in the Message you've heard. On the other hand, perhaps it is new, freshly minted as it is in both Christ and you—the darkness fading away and the True Light already blazing!

⁹⁻¹¹ Anyone who claims to live in God's light and hates a brother or sister is still in the dark. It's the person who loves brother and sister who dwells in God's light and doesn't block the light from others. But whoever hates is still in the dark, stumbles around in the dark, doesn't know which end is up, blinded by the darkness.

Thought for the day: David Acheson

Light and Dark 1 John 2:7-11

Text: 'The darkness is passing and the true light is shining.' 1 John 2:8.

This talk is all about 2's.

* Two Commands- love God and love each other with Jesus at the centre

* Two Worlds- walking in the darkness versus walking in the light

*Two Roads- one broad and the other narrow

*Two Sisters-Corrie and Betsie Ten Boom who found God's love is real and powerful.
