Lord, we're sorry for when we get things wrong and when we don't take good care of the things you give us. Help us know how to use things well and in a way that shows people who You are. Amen.

Today's Reading

Matthew 25 : 14-30

Verse of the week : Matthew 25 : 21

Well done good and faithful servant!

Thought for the Day: Jenny Blackburn

In the parable a talent is a large amount of money, given by the Master to three servants. The servants are expected to look after wisely and be good stewards of the money each of the three servants is given. They are given different responsibilities according to their gifts, skills and abilities. So the first receives 5 talents, then 2 for the 2nd, and one for the 3rd. The first two servants double his money! But the 3rd servant is lazy and fearful so just buries it in the garden. In the same way, God gives us the responsibility to use the gifts that we have been given wisely, in His service. To grow ourselves and others to bear spiritual fruit and spread the gospel. To be good stewards of what we have been given to do on earth. Then what a joy it will be to hear Jesus words, well done, good and faithful servant when Jesus returns at the end of the age.
