Thought for the Day: Rev Ian ward

"Those who cannot remember the past are condemned to repeat it."-- George Santayana, The Life of Reason, 1905.

Remembering, memories, don't simply colour the past, they shape our future. So what are we remembering? Do we remember the bad things of the past, our hurts, failures and embarrassments? Paul chooses to remember not what he has done or even who he has been. He chooses to remember what God has done in Jesus. So, he proclaims nothing can separate us from the love of God in Christ Jesus our Lord.

Jesus, who bridged the gap for each of us between who we are and who God made us to be. Jesus who stood in our place and took the fall, did our time, absorbed the blame, so we could be loved and surrounded by God.

Butterfly Hospice: "Light Up a Life" Annual Remembrance Service: "Light Up a Life" welcomes everyone, whether they have had a connection with the hospice or not, to reflect on happy memories finding special moments to celebrate the lives of those we have loved whilst helping Butterfly Hospice to support people living with life-limiting illness and their families. This year, our doors will open earlier at 2:00pm, inviting you to join us as we take over the Stump coffee shop for the afternoon. Before the event, we invite you to join us for refreshments, including lots of delightful homemade cakes – an opportunity to meet with our nurses and charity staff, fostering an atmosphere of togetherness and support available until 3:30pm as our service starts at 4:00pm. We will be joined by the Blighty Belles Lincolnshire Vocal Academy Choirs who will sing for us and with us, their music will not only inspire us into reflective thinking but entertain us as well. "Light up a Life" is not only a FREE community event that honours precious memories but also an opportunity to help your local hospice continue to provide compassionate care for those facing life-limiting illnesses along with their families. Your presence signifies support for this vital mission and the shared experience of remembrance. We look forward to seeing old and new friends and to sharing this afternoon of reflection with you.
