Weekly Update

Thought for the day: Nigel Andrews

Not my King? Palm Sunday marks the start of Holy Week. Jesus hailed as king but is eventually rejected by the people and crucified. They rejected his kingship because of personal prejudices, false expectations and fears. These same attitudes determine our responses to Jesus today; in society and even within the Church community. Jesus is Lord and King of all – an eternal truth, affirmed by his life, death and resurrection. The disciples, watching and learning, gradually understood who he was, up to the point of realisation and total commitment. This is true for us today - As we learn and experience more of him, we come to the point of realisation. He confronts us with a choice. Ultimately, to accept as Lord and God or to reject him; To commit to him or to back away. Will you have Jesus to be your king – Lord in everything?

Please continue to pray for Pam S, Pete B, Corina D, Tracie T. Pray for those waiting for appointments, test results and operations and those supporting people in difficult situations at work or home, those struggling with mental health and their carers.

Due to an electrical issue which affects the fans in Church, there will be no heating in Church now until the Autumn. Please bring an extra layer, even if it is warm outside! We are looking to fix this over the Summer.

Our Annual Parochial Church Meeting will be on Sunday 27th April at 2:00pm. Please attend if at all possible. PCC elections are 4 places for 3 years.

Ladies Fellowship: The next meeting is on Saturday 26th April at 2:00pm and is open to all. We shall be welcoming the new coordinator from Safe Families for Children, Tina Obbard. She will update us all on what is happening with Safe Families and speak to anyone interested in helping. Please sign up on the noticeboard if you wish to attend.

Pam Wright would like to thank all the Church Family for their prayers in recent weeks. She is now at home and happy to see visitors.
