Reading of the week: Acts 9:36-end
Verse of the week: John 11:25-26
I am the resurrection and the life. The one who believes in me will live, even though they die, and whoever lives by believing in me will never die.
Thought for the day: Sola Taiwo
The story of Tabitha's resurrection by Peter, highlights the themes of faith, benevolence, and responsiveness, as follows: Recognition – Tabitha, a true disciple and was also known for her good works to the poor and widows. Rich People Have Needs Too – Despite her likely wealth, Tabitha needed care. She received compassionate community support even in death. Responding to Need – Peter and others responded immediately, showing the power of faith and action, and in the name of Jesus Christ, the Giver of Life responded to the words of a man as Tabitha arose. Let this "Tabitha Spirit" arise again among us, a spirit of generosity, care, and faith, fostering hope, and prayer with one another in difficult times. It urges the church to be recognized as dispensers of grace, actively loving and supporting those in need, rather than retreating into self-preservation. Simply believe in the Lord Jesus Christ and you too can imagine great things, trusting in God's power to restore life and hope.
