Acts 16:31

Thought for the Day: David Acheson

A most important question.

What do you think is the most important question in the New Testament? For me one of the key questions is to be found in Acts 16:31. Have you guessed what it is? I can tell you that it involves a prison officer and a midnight song. Here was a big surprise, a big earthquake, a big question and a big change! It's all about being set free from the power of sin and death. If you have time do read Acts 16. It is one of the most exciting chapters in the book of Acts. The Geography is great too! There are places that Paul and Silas are not to go to and another continent that God tells them to go to. Which continent might that be? Do join us and find out.

Ideas to pray for your five people

There are so many creative ways to do this:

- You could write down the names of the 5 people you are praying for in your phone, or place a note somewhere in your home (like the bathroom mirror) or on a little card and set reminders to pray for them throughout the day.
- You could use a band and tie 5 knots, each one representing your 5 or maybe each time you drink a cup of tea, coffee or glass of water, you could remember to pray for them.
- perhaps you could turn your everyday journeys into moments of prayer – be it walking, driving or cycling and hold one person each day in prayer, then collectively praying for them at particular points.
- You could try the 555 prayer challenge – praying blessings over your 5 people daily at 5pm. There are so many wonderful ways to pray.....

Praying for five people is at the heart of Thy Kingdom Come.
Who could you be praying for this Ascension to Pentecost to know the love of Christ for themselves?
