May God be gracious to us and bless us and make his face shine upon us. That your ways may be made known on earth, your salvation among all nations. May the people praise you O God; may all the people praise you. May the nations be glad and sing for joy for you rule the people justly and guide the nations of the earth. May the people praise you O God; and God, our God, will bless us. God will bless us, and all the ends of the earth will fear him. AMEN.

Thought for the Day: Dave Parkinson

Our theme for today - 'Destination heaven'. But how do you try to describe something not only beyond our imagination but also beyond our comprehension. In the book of Revelation John uses images to try and portray something of the new heaven and the new earth which he saw. The centre-piece is the holy city of Jerusalem coming down out of heaven from God. It's shaped like a cube just like the holy of holies in the ancient Jerusalem temple. There's no need for a temple now

Weekly Update

because God is everywhere. It's a shift-shaping image because earlier it's described as God's people, the Bride, the wife of the Lamb. The broken relationship between God and creation is re-established as at the beginning. For Christians it's our future hope as we journey through life to our eternal destination. But it's more than just a hope because heaven breaks through into our lives as God's kingdom comes on earth as in heaven. By God's Spirit lives are touched, guidance given, and hearts are warmed in commitment to Jesus, our living hope. We are being transformed into his likeness ready to enjoy the fulness of God's presence for ever.

Please continue to pray for Pam S. Pray for those waiting for appointments, test results and operations and those supporting people in difficult situations at work or home, those struggling with mental health and their carers.
