Opening Prayer

God of light and truth, we worship you. You are so awesome we can't completely understand you. You are so bright we can't look upon, but you sent Jesus. He said anyone who has seen me has seen the Father. So we praise and thank you, with words and music and action for you have shown us truth and love in Jesus Christ, our Saviour, Amen

Reading of the week: Acts 9:1-20

Verse of the week: 2 Corinthians 5:17

Therefore, if anyone is in Christ, the new creation has come. The old has gone, the new is here!

Thought for the day:

Today we look at a man called Saul later to be called Paul, a man obsessed with stopping the followers of Jesus declaring His resurrection and, sharing the good news of salvation in His name. He was so zealous that he pursued them where ever they went, even seeking papers giving him Authority to take men, women, and children prisoner in chains to trial in his effort to stem their progress but, while he was travelling to Damascus he was surrounded with a bright light and heard the voice of Jesus calling his name as, a result of this encounter he became a changed man and, became even more active in promoting faith in Jesus than, he was in opposing their message previously. Through his encounter with Jesus and, the teaching of the Holy Spirit the letters he wrote provided great insights for our Christian doctrines, all through a life changing encounter with Jesus
