Opening Prayer (based on Psalm 27)

Lord, you are our light and our salvation; you protect us from danger, you remove our fears from us, you invite us to worship you. Our greatest desire is to live in your presence: here we marvel at your goodness and ask for your guidance; here, with joyful acclamation we offer the sacrifice of our love, our gifts and our lives; here, we sing your praise, here, we seek your forgiveness, here, you teach us what you want us to do, and lead us in safe paths. We trust you and do not despair: we know that we will live to see your goodness in this present life; and we look to you for the life to come. Lord, you are our light and our salvation. Amen
