Opening Prayer
Father God, you are a holy God and yet you invite us to come into your presence. We come to worship and to praise you, to ask for forgiveness and to listen to you. Please teach us, hear our prayers and enable us to serve you wherever you may lead. Amen
Readings of the week: Luke: 14: 25-33
Verse of the week: Luke 14:33
Once upon a time there was a king and he decided to build a tower....Once upon a time there was a king and he decided to send his army out to fight in a battle... Yes, these stories are in the Bible (well without the 'once upon a time' in your translation). What on earth was he up to? Had he really counted the cost of his plans? You need to count the cost of following Jesus too. What might counting the cost mean? What sort of costs are we talking about? Is it about where we live, the job we do, how much we earn, how big our house is? What is Jesus talking about? It certainly means being ready to trust Jesus with our life and our decisions. Are we ready to trust him with all our this? Oh, yes and we'll also think about the joys of following Jesus!
