Readings this Week: Romans 1:1-7, Matthew 1:18-25

Verse of the Week: Matthew 1:24

Joseph—did what the angel of the Lord commanded him.

Thought for the Day: Nigel Andrews

When God breaks-in: Mt 1:18-24

At the right time, God the Son chose to fulfil the promise of salvation by being born into our messy world. For Joseph and Mary, that meant disruption of their plans. They had to choose the way of faith and obedience in order to fulfil God's will for them – and for us.

If we believe God acts in history and our lives, we need to be willing to trust and obey him. We pray, "Your kingdom come." This is meaningless unless we willingly allow him to work in and through our lives today. We cannot experience the fullness of life and the joy he promises until we are willing to let God intervene in our lives; bringing salvation, purpose and power to serve Jesus. No-one else could do what Joseph and Mary did. Today, God is looking for our trust and obedience; to be a blessing to those around us.
